Yvonne Morgan - absent

REPORTS:

Nothing to report

Old Business:

Ben Scott asked if James Davis would give a brief summary on the Farm for Life (Luke Bryan Concert). James Davis responded that a meeting was held with the Sheriff's Office, Fire Department, Public Works, Environmental Health, Building Department, Zoning, Concert Producers, Staff and Doug Yates. For the alcohol sales there will be two people per alcohol tent checking ID's and bracelets will be worn by those who purchase alcohol. The ID's will randomly be checked regarding those over the age of 21. Ben Scott asked if the alcohol would be purchased locally and James Davis responded that the Farm for Life Tour has paid a fee to the county and paid for the special event and alcohol permits. Vendors selling at the concert are part of the Farm for Life Tour. The gates will be open at 2 pm for tailgating. No beer or alcohol will be allowed into the concert area. There will be no fireworks allowed on the premises.

Sheriff's department will be roving the areas. In case of inclement weather Doug Yates will not be rendering wrecker services, however there will be tractors on site and a release form must be signed if services are rendered. Luke Bryan will go on stage at 9:30 pm.
